matter for consideration whether these reasons may not be communicated to Mr. Venkobarao with reference to his present representation.

2. It may also be noted in this connection that the ~~ordinary~~ acting tenure of one of the officers who are now officiating in the grade of Senior Asst. Comrs. can be treated as sub pro tem in the vacancy caused by Mr. L. Krishnarao being on other duty.

5. Mr Venkoba Rao's point is that if Mr D'Souza had a right to supersede Mr Nagar Subba Rao, he (Mr BV) also shd be deemed to have such a right

6. The reason for the first supersession is ~~perhaps~~ given in Mr D'Souza's note in G M file no 35-11, approved by Govt.

7. The Raja of Sibbandi's exemption gave him eligibility after he had superseded him, but before the Venkoba Rao could do so. This consideration probably meets the Venkoba Rao's point fully.

(Sd.) 24.1.14

8. Mr. D'Souza's promotion to the grade of Senior Assistants cannot be sanctioned before the Raja of Sibbandi was exempted from passing the prescribed exam.; which in the case of the Venkoba Rao ~~has not been~~ has been. cases of the Sibbandi & Mr. Venkoba Rao's claims to be placed above the Sibbandi & Naccan cannot be upheld.

9. It may also be added that the Sibbandi having done a return of a year or two, ~~redundancy for~~ he will not stand in the way of the Venkoba Rao's future prospects. Seniority. As regards the Naccan.

Dear Sir,

I saw the Dewan yesterday and submitted him my claim for being placed just below Mr D'Souza as a senior assistant commissioner and for being confirmed here. If Mr D'Souza has a right to supersede Mr Nagar Rubba Rao & Mr Meccai, I respectfully submit that I too have a right. As matters now stand, I not only lose my confirmation as senior assistant Commissioner in the place now given to Mr Nagar Dubba Rao, but further opportunities are given to Mr Meeai, by this delay in my Confirmation, to pass the required examination and then claim to supersede me in the permanent vacancy also I respectfully submit that my claim to be placed just below Mr D' Souza is not a matter of favour but of justice, and I would with the utmost respect submit that the matter may be placed before His Highness for gracious reconsideration.

No reply has been vouchsafed to me in the matter of my previous petition on this subject.

I beg that an endorsement may be kindly given to me as regards my claim.

I handed over charge of the city magistrate's court this afternoon.

Yours sincerely

Dear Mr. Venkobarao,

With reference to your letter of the 17th January last regarding your claim to be placed, like Mr. G. D'Souza, above Messrs. Nagara Subbarao and Rahimuddin Meer in the grade of Secr Asst. Secrs, I am desired to inform you that the analogy of Mr. D'Souza

Case ~~does not apply to yours~~ inasmuch as he had been promoted to that grade before ~~either~~ the rule requiring the passing of the prescribed departmental examinations was relaxed in the case of Mr. Nagaraja Rao or Mr. Zahiruddin Meer[illegible] and ~~also~~ to add that ~~these officers~~ neither as the case stands Mr Nagaraja Rao nor Mr Zahiruddin Meer is ~~are not~~ likely to stand in the way of your advancement in Service as the former officer is due to retire soon and the exemption granted to the latter entitles him to fill only one acting vacancy in the Secretariat Assistants' grade.
